Prime Lambs – 570

A smaller yarding that lacked the well finished Lambs as previous weeks. The market was similar to previous weeks.

Large	$145 - $164
Medium	$120- $145
Small	$100 - $120.

Prime Ewes – 220

Not many Ewes yarded today, but prices were very similar to last week.

Large	$105 - $131
Medium	$75 - $100
Small	$55 - $75

Store Lambs - 100

Only 100 Store Lambs entered today did not draw a big crowd. A decent proportion were fine wool Lambs and per kg prices reflected this.

Large	$90 - $104
Medium	$75 - $85
Small	$60 - $70

Prime & Store Cattle

Although it was a small yarding of Primes & Stores at Coalgate, the price is still rising with only 1 pen out of the Prime Steers & Heifers going under the $3.00 mark. The rest were well over $3.00. The top pen of Charolais x Steers fetched $3.36. The Heifers also sold well with the tops fetching $3.37. Cows & Bulls were limited today with just 2 Bulls in the sale, a Wagyu weighing 395kg made $2.58, and the Shorthorn Bull weighing in at 760kg made $3.22. The Cows were all well over $2.00, ranging from $2.07 - $3.26.

The Store market is on the lift with 2-year-old Beef x Heifers making $1240 and Calves making $500 - $670.
