Prime Lambs - 1900

A large yarding of Prime Lambs, well finished ones were firm, the lighter end Lambs were back due to Lamb supply coming on, as people get in before teeth become an issue. The yarding was back $5 - $10 head.

Tops	$230 - $244
Large	$190 - $230
Medium	$150 - $190
Small	$130 - $150

Prime Ewes - 350

A mixed yarding of Ewes in today saw similar prices to last week's good sale.

Tops	$130 - $150
Large	$110 - $130
Medium	$90 - $110
Small	$70 - $90

Store Lambs - 500

There wasn't the very heavy Store Lambs yarded this week. The predominately finer woolled yarding sold to good competition. Some tidy up lines sold well for type.

Tops	$110 - $124
Large	$90 - $100
Small	$50 - $60

Prime & Store Cattle

It started off as a windy day here at Coalgate. The Yards were full of good quality lines of Cattle which attracted a large gallery of buyers. The Prime market eased slightly this week with Steers ranging between $3.35 - $3.58, Heifers from $3.10 - $3.48. The best of the Cows reached $2.62 kg. The Store market contained a tidy assortment of forward 2-year-old Cattle, and some good lines of Yearlings as well. The 2-year-old Steers ranged from $1460 - $1740 and the Heifers made between $1170 - $1470. The best of the Yearling Steers made between $830 - $1370 and Heifers made from $870 - $1050.
